ADDITIONAL COMMENTS (to be filled by the local partner)

- The participants have found these presentations were well designed and given us helpful information about opportunities offered to young researchers.
- Generally, participants showed satisfactorily self-confidence at training and have expressed great interest over the possible future research work at University.
- The participants were satisfied with this way of delivering knowledge and interactive presentations. Also, they've appraised lecturers' experience as completely adequate for this type of training.
- The young researchers declared it is important for their father progression to keep them informed about progress in adoption of new legislation and procedures in higher education and research field.
- The young researchers, also, want to learn more about financing research activities and opportunities for financial support for their projects.
