Event Title:	Lecture of prof. dr D. Pokrajac dedicated to prevention of students' attrition and measures to improve motivation
Event Date:	25.11.2016
Event Venue:	University of Nis, Rectorate building
Short description:	On 25th November, 2016, prof. dr Dragoljub Pokrajac gave a lecture on students' attrition and measures to improve motivation at the Rectorate building of the University of Nis. Prof. Dr Dragoljub Pokrajac is a professor of Computer and Information Sciences, Assistant Vice President for Business Analytic and Chief Data Officer. He graduated in 1993 at the Faculty of Eletronics in Nis and defended his PhD dissertation on spatial-temporal data mining in 2002 at the Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He is one of those professors who are willing to share good practices from the universities abroad and that was one of the main reasons for inviting him to come and give this lecture within the Re@WBC project. Many other questions were raised during the discussion the most interesting among which was how to reduce the dropout rate and how to improve the status of researchers at universities.
