Short description: Promotion of the Re@WBC project during the XIX Geometrical Seminar
The University of Nis in collaboration with the University of Belgrade has organised the promotion of the Re@WBC project during the XIX Geometrical Seminar which took place from 29.08 to 04.09.2016 at Zlatibor. This presented an opportunity to make a number of researchers familiar with the basic role of Re@WBC project but also to exchange ideas on how to improve the position of researchers at universities. The promotion material was distributed to the participants.
