Report on Activity 3.2

With regard to Activity 3.2, there have been considerable updates with regards to the information content and ease of access to both the academic staff and the students. The main aim is to have an increased transparency of research opportunities and information flow. In order to reach this goal one of the steps that was taken relates to the update of the researchers' email database. All members of the staff use the official email addresses not only to receive daily information but also as a means of communication between researchers.
